Learning, Teaching and Assessment Strategy
Students will develop the knowledge, understanding and skills necessary to meet the learning outcomes of the module through the instructional learning and teaching strategy; team-based learning. Students will study the core knowledge-based content of the module out of class; this is then assessed through readiness assurance tests (i-RAT), which are MCQ assessments for learning taken at regular intervals throughout the semester. Students discuss the i-RAT assessment in groups and retake the assessment as a team (t-RAT). In class sessions, students will apply their new knowledge to formative and summative team application exercises. Experiential understanding of the person-centred approach will be developed through practical sessions. Formative Assessment: On-going Peer evaluations of team and interpersonal skills Summative Assessment: Classroom Test One - On-going assessment using individual and team readiness assurance process (i-RAPs & t-RAPs), with weighting between each negotiated by the cohort at the start. The default is equal parts i-RAP and t-RAP. Approximately 20 to 30 minutes per unit (approximately 6 to 8 units) = 33% of overall mark. Classroom Test Two - Ongoing team application exercises. Approximately 500 words per unit or equivalent (approximately 6 to 8 units) = 33% of overall mark. Coursework - Peer evaluations of team and interpersonal skills = 34% of overall mark. Supplementary Assessment if required: Coursework One - structured portfolio of theoretical learning- approximately 5 accounts of 500 words each, maximum total of 2,500 words- = 70% of overall mark. Coursework Two - Structured portfolio of reflective accounts - Approximately 5 accounts of 300 words each with a maximum total of 1,500 words = 30% of overall mark.
